ADJUDICATOR: Douglas Mews.

Freelance Concert Organist. Early Music Specialist.
Director of Music at St. Teresa's Church Karori WELLINGTON

CONDITIONS

1. The NZOA Organ Performance Awards aims to encourage potential for above-average organ playing.
2. The NZOA Organ Performance Awards is open to all organists, whether members of New Zealand Organ Association Inc. (hereafter NZOA) or not, who have not won first place in the Organ Performance Awards within the last three years.
3. There is no entry fee to the Performance Awards, and entrants need not be registered for the NZOA Congress to compete. (See Assistance to Participate below.)
4. Entrants are required to perform one set piece plus one work of their own choice.
5. The set piece is Ich ruf zu dir, Herr Jesu Christ, BWV 639 by J S Bach.
6. The combined total playing time of the two pieces must not exceed twelve minutes.
7. You may have one console assistant who will be provided by NZOA.
8. One copy of the scores must be supplied for the adjudicator(s). These will be returned.
9. A written appraisal of the performance will be made by the adjudicator(s) and given to the performers.
10. Up to three awards may be made. First prize, $1,000; second prize, $650; third prize, $350. Prizes are distributed at the discretion of the adjudicator(s) and not all prizes may be awarded.
11. The adjudicator(s) will be appointed by the Council of NZOA. The adjudicator's decision shall be final.
12. NZOA reserves the right to cancel the Competition and make no awards for any reason.
13. If an excessive number of applications are received, NZOA may apply suitable pre-selection criteria at its discretion.
