Cancellation policy: Wherever possible, financial commitments in respect of the event will be entered into on the basis that should a "lockdown" or other emergency arise necessitating cancellation, no charges will be payable by the Wellington Organists' Association. However, to the extent that unavoidable fees are incurred AND cancellation at short notice is required, it will be necessary to deduct "sunk costs" from refunds to registered attendees. A full audit and reconciliation of receipts and costs will be published should this situation arise.

Further, the organisers reserve the right to cancel the event if the level of advance bookings suggests that there will not be sufficient attendees to mitigate the risk of material financial loss. Early registration will be important to help address this concern.
